Meaning: (from TK Govinda Rao's book)

For the ones who believe, "there is", the assurance given by the wise that "there is", will that assurance be falsified now ? How unfortunate that the golden words of the great men have been belied? Have they not averred that God does exist for those who steadfastly repose faith in Him!

I am here yearning to see your mirror-like cheeked charming face. Why do you not bother to come near me?

Abandoning sleep – thus- being awake – holing nicely the tambura – to maintain one's basic drone, being guileness – devoid of any mental reservation – enabling to grasp as it is what comes in front with aesthetic sense – with the intention of being melodious -, such devotees who sing your praises, in the prescribed path, are you not the Protector of the ones who believe "there is" ?
