Meaning: (From TK Govinda Rao's book)

The Trinity -- Shankara, Naaraayana and Vidhi (Brahma) - outshine (“velasiri”) the other Gods thanks to their Saadhana of Naada -- divine Omkaara, a facet of you as Brahman.

They could uphold (“uddharulu”) the Vedas and transcend (“atheethulu”) them. They (“vaarulu”) pervade(“nindiyunde”) the Universe (“viswamella”).

(On the strength of Naadopasana), they (“athmulu”) acquired immense occult powers. They have the form of Mantra, Yantra and Tantras. They have an extraordinary long span of life comprising of Manus many life-spans (Manvantaras). They delight in vocal and instrumental (“tantri”) music. They are worshipped (“vandyulu”) by Tyaagaraaja. They are free souls (“swatantrulu”) not bound by anybody’s commands.. .
