Meaning: (approximate)

Can I (“tarama”) ever understand (“ariya”) your (“unathu”) greatness and significance (“tatva”), O Moolaadhaara Ganapathi? O lord of celestials (“surapathe”)...

I am one who does not have even an iota (“satrum illada”) of serene qualities (“satva guna”), kindness (“jeeva daya”) or knowledge (“jnaanamum”). How can I understand your greatness?

You are one full (“paripoorna”) of joy (“madhura”). You have a sweetmeat (“modaka”) in your hands (“kara”). You can dispel even the mightiest of obstacles (“vigna”). You are justice (“nidhi”) and kindness (“anba”) personified. You permeate the entire universe (“nitila charaachara”) and are the cause of it (“beejaankurane”). You are the son (“maghane”) of Madishekhar (Shiva). You have an auspicious (“su”) elephant (“madavaarana”) face (“mukhane”). You inspire the mind (“chitparane”). You are the brother (“sodharane”) of Guruguha (murugan). How can this Ramadasa understand your greatness ?
