Meaning: (Courtesy: Tyagaraja Vaibhavam)

P: Please listen (vinarA). It is not possible (jAladurA) for my mind (manasu) let go (viDa) Your holy feet.

A: Please listen. Even if I (nEnu) come to grief (ArtibaDina) (nEnArtibaDina) caught in (cE tagili) (literally caught in the hands of) vain hopes (aDiyAsalu) (aDiyAsalacE), it is not possible for my mind to let go Your holy feet (padambulanu).

C: Whatever (E) jobs (panulaku) the body (tanuvu) (tanuvE) might be engaged in (canina) (literally go), and (mari) even if I happen to see (kanugonina) things not to be (rAnidi) seen (kana), apprehending (bhAvinci) everything to be You alone (ninugA), I remained happy (santasilliti); Please listen, O Lord praised (nuta) by this tyAgarAja! It is not possible for my mind to let go Your holy feet.

Pallavi:

viDajAladurA nA manasu vinarA

Sahityam: viDajAladurA nA manasu

Meaning: It is not possible (jAladurA) for my mind (manasu) let go (viDa) Your holy feet.

Additional Meanings: (From T.K. Govinda Rao's book):

Listen my Lord, to this assurance of mine. My mind may be tossed about violently by despicable desires causing emancipation of my body, but it will never let go its hold of your sacred feet. Whatever the tasks I engage in, whatever the sights that confront me, however disagreeable, I regard them all without repugnance as your dispensation, O God worshipped by Tyagaraja
